Coaches' Bios...

*Head Coach
Melissa Bautista*

Originally from Sacramento, CA, Melissa Daniels has played fast pitch softball since the age of seven. Daniels began her collegiate career playing two years at The University of Pacific in California before transferring to The University of Alabama. Daniels was a starting pitcher for Coach Patrick Murphy and the Crimson Tide her junior season, going 18-4. The 2000 team made the school's first ever appearance in the College World Series, placing sixth nationally. During her senior year, Daniels changed positions and became the starting left fielder and also served as a Team Captain. She finished her career in 2001 and graduated with a bachelor's degree in Sports Fitness Management. Daniels is in her third year as the Head Softball Coach of the Shelton State Lady Bucs. Coach Daniels and her husband, Brooks, have one son Brooks (9 months).

*Assistant Coach
Kayla Pond*

Kayla Pond is a native of Moody, Alabama and returns this year to serve as a student assistant for Coach Daniels. Kayla lettered the previous two seasons for Shelton State as an outfielder. She is continuing her education at the University of Alabama, majoring in Early Childhood Education.
